ANZAC Day 2025

Friday, 25 April saw the Cloncurry community come together at both the Dawn and the morning Commemorative Services to honour and remember the sacrifices made by Australians and New Zealanders who served in wars, conflicts, and peacekeeping missions. ANZAC Day offered us an opportunity to pause, reflect, and pay tribute to the bravery, resilience, and mate-ship that have come to define the ANZAC spirit.

In marking 110 years since the Gallipoli landing, we also had an opportunity to honour those who are, and continue to serve our country today.

We would also like to thank the following for their support in organising the ANZAC Day services: the Cloncurry RSL Subbranch; the Leichhardt Hotel for the gunfire breakfast; and the QCWA and volunteers for the morning tea at Florence Clark Park. Lest We Forget.

COUNCIL OUT AND ABOUT

Annual Easter Fair

The Easter Bunny was in town for the Cloncurry Shire Council and MMG annual Easter Fair on Thursday 17 April.

Before hopping off to Mary Kathleen Park, EB stopped in at the Cloncurry Shire Council Admin Building to say hello to staff there!

The Fair saw families enjoy an evening with market stalls, an Easter egg hunt, a bbq hosted by the Cloncurry Lions, a movie and of course Easter eggs being handed out by the Easter Bunny himself! The weather had certainly contributed to the amazing evening!
