Cloncurry Bushfire Update 5:30pm 26 October 2024

Queensland Fire Department issued an updated warning at 12:23pm on Saturday, 26 October 2024. Please stay informed. There is no immediate danger but it is important to stay informed as conditions could change.

Thank you to everyone who has been working so hard to manage fires in the region again today. The bushfire is currently to the south-east of Cloncurry and will continue to be monitored by Queensland Fire Department with the support of local ground crews.

Queensland Fire Department has allocated resources for tomorrow to continue to manage the bushfire. This includes:

Bushfire management resources

- Multiple Fire and Rescue crews
- Multiple SES crews
- Multiple Rural Fire Service crews
- Multiple aircraft
- Plus multiple local crews

Queensland Fire Department will issue an updated warning if the situation changes.

Thanks again to all for their efforts in managing this bush fire.
